1. Tuberculin skin testing. A small dose (0.1 mil) of purified protein derivative (PPD) tuberculin is injected just beneath the surface of the skin (by the intradermal Mantoux method), and the area is examined for induration (hard, dense, raised area at the site of the TST administration) forty-eight to seventy-two (48 to 72) hours after the injection (but positive reactions can still be measurable up to a week after administering the TST). The size of the indurated area is measured with a millimeter ruler and the reading is recorded in millimeters, including zero (0) millimeters to represent no induration. Redness and/or erythema is insignificant and is not measured or recorded. Authorized Healthcare Providers are permitted to perform tuberculin skin testing and symptom screening.

2. Blood Assay for Mycobacterium tuberculosis (“BAMT”). A general term to refer to in vitro diagnostic tests that assess for the presence of tuberculosis (“TB”) infection with Mycobacterium tuberculosis. This term includes, but is not limited to, IFN- γ release assays (“IGRA”).

2. Tuberculosis Screening. All staff within three (3) months prior to Patient contact shall have a baseline two-step Tuberculin Skin Test (“TST”) or a single Blood Assay for Mycobacterium tuberculosis (“BAMT”). If a newly employed staff or volunteer has had a documented negative TST or a BAMT result within the previous twelve (12) months, a single TST (or the single BAMT) can be administered and read to serve as the baseline prior to Patient contact.

Routine repeat chest radiographs are not required unless symptoms or signs of TB tuberculosis disease develop or unless recommended by a Physician. These Patients will be evaluated for the need for treatment of TB tuberculosis disease or latent tuberculosis infection and will be encouraged to follow the recommendations made by a Physician with tuberculosis expertise (i.e., the Department's Tuberculosis Control program).

2. Patients who are known or suspected to have tuberculosis disease shall be transferred from the Facility if the Facility does not have an Airborne Infection Isolation room, required to undergo evaluation by a Physician, and permitted to return to the Facility only with approval by the Department's Tuberculosis Control program.
