Outreach and Prevention Services-The Bee Box is a socio-emotional toolkit for survivors who disclose in public spaces (distributed among hospitals, police stations, schools, churches, and other community-based locations), monthly trainings, and tabling in the community along with our bi-lingual podcast, Somos Melanted Voices. The Hive Prevention programming includes a teen and parent prevention program, The Buzz Pak. The Buzz Pak is a 5-week curriculum that fosters healthy relationships, autonomy, and healthy parent-teen relationships. Within our prevention programming, The Hive also provides day training to organizations, healthcare professionals, and advocates on sexual assault, intimate partner violence, stalking, and providing culturally specific services.
